

DANCING FEAT: Talented youngsters step up for silverware

Dancers from the Courtney McMahon School of Irish Dance with Ian and Lynne Armitt

PD1564004

TOES twinkled at a contest to showcase the talents of young dancers.

Children from Dartford and Bexley, aged five to 16, took part in the competition staged by the Courtney McMahon School of Irish Dance in Townley Grammar School, Bexleyheath.

The youngsters were watched by the mayor and mayoress of Dartford, Cllr Ian Armitt and wife Lynne, who dished out the prizes.