

YOUNG GAELS

Celebrating
Irish youth

Mayor presents dance prizes

YOUNG dancers were thrilled when eight-times Solo World Champion and lead dancer from Lord Of The Dance, Catriona Hale, adjudicated a dance event staged by the Courtney McMahon School of Irish Dance at Townley Grammar School in Bexleyheath, Kent, recently.

Dancers, aged five to 16, were dazzled by the collection of silverware, trophies, medals and sashes that were up for grabs and Dartford mayor Councillor Ian Armitt and his wife Lynne were there to present the prizes.

